THANK YOU, AND MAY GOD BLESS YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR PARISH!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

Because the prophet Jeremiah foretold disaster for Jerusalem, he was denounced. But Jeremiah trusted in the Lord and overcame his persecutors.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15

Paul explains to the Romans that Adam's sin brought death to all, but Christ's gift of himself brought grace and life.

Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33

In authoritative and encouraging words, Jesus urges the apostles to fear nothing -- only him who can destroy the soul. Telling them "every hair of your head has been counted," he promises that "Whoever acknowledges me before men I will acknowledge before my Father in heaven."

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William Reilly

"But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one, many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many." ... "For to you I have entrusted my cause. Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord for he has rescued the life of the poor."

We receive many gifts, and in our own day use the word 'regift' to pass on to someone else a gift we have received because we do not need it or like it. Some of our greatest gifts we take for granted. Consider for a moment the gift of life, of health, of family, of friends. All are important and treasured and are not for giving away.

St. Paul told the Romans of the gift of Jesus, rescuing us with the gift of grace which overflows, the gift of life in abundance. Remember the floods which hit the rivers in California and Texas last winter. Remember the devastation of hurricane Matthew in Haiti last fall. The overflow was devastating. The grace of God, offering us the abundant life, has been poured out into our hearts. He sends and we receive, but like any gift we have to reach out, open our hands and hearts to receive it. Yes, Lord, to you I have entrusted my cause.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera Lectura: Jeremías 20:10-13

El profeta Jeremías fue acusado ya que predijo el desastre de Jerusalén. Pero Jeremías confiaba en el Señor y venció a sus perseguidores.

Segunda Lectura: Romanos 5:12-15

Pablo explica a los romanos que el pecado de Adán trajo la muerte a todos, pero que el regalo de Cristo de darse a sí mismo trajo gracia y vida.

Evangelio: San Mateo 10:26-33

Con palabras de aliento y de autoridad, Jesús incita a los apóstoles a no temer nada, sólo a aquel que puede destruir su alma. Les dice que "hasta los cabellos de la cabeza los tienen contados", y promete que "Si alguien se declara a mi favor delante de los hombres, yo también me declararé a favor de él delante de mi Padre que está en el cielo."

SU PALABRA HOY

por el Rev. William Reilly

"Pero no hay proporción entre el don y la falta. Porque si la falta de uno solo provocó la muerte de todos, la gracia de Dios y el don conferido por la gracia de un solo hombre, Jesucristo, fueron derramados mucho más abundantemente sobre todos." ... "Porque a ti he encomendado mi causa. ¡Canten al Señor, alaben al Señor, porque él libró la vida del indigente del poder de los malhechores!"

Recibimos muchos regalos y hasta decimos que 're-regalamos' cuando se lo pasamos a alguien más porque no nos gusta o no lo necesitamos. A muchos de nuestros más grandes dones los tomamos por sentados. Considere por un momento el don de la vida, la salud, la familia, los amigos. Todos son valiosos tesoros y no son para pasárselos a nadie más.

San Pablo les habló a los romanos del regalo de Jesús, quien nos rescató derramando su gracia, el don de abundante vida. Recuerde las inundaciones que castigaron a California y Texas el invierno pasado. Recuerde la devastación que dejó el huracán Matthew en Haití el pasado otoño. Los desbordamientos fueron devastadores. La gracia de Dios, que nos ofrece vida abundante, ha sido derramada sobre nuestros corazones. El envía y nosotros recibimos, pero como con cualquier regalo, debemos abrir y extender nuestras manos y corazones para recibirlo. Si, Señor, a ti he encomendado mi causa.

HOLY ORDERS

Holy Orders is the Sacrament by which bishops, priests, and other ministers [deacons] of the Church are ordained and receive the power and grace to perform their sacred duties.

That a man may receive Holy Orders worthily it is necessary:

1. that he be in the state of grace and be of excellent character;
2. that he have the prescribed age and learning;
3. that he have the intention of devoting his life to the sacred ministry;
4. that he be called to Holy Orders by his bishop.

“Keep watch over yourselves and over the whole flock of which the Holy Spirit has appointed you overseers, in which you tend the church of God that he acquired with his own blood.” (Acts 20:28)

A vocation to the priesthood means a call from God to serve His Church. That invitation from God to receive Holy Orders is given by the proper ecclesiastical superior to a man who, after a sufficient period of preparation and trial, gives signs that he has been called by God to the priesthood.

The effects of ordination to the priesthood are: first, an increase of sanctifying grace; second, sacramental grace, through which the priest has God's constant help in his sacred ministry; third, a character, lasting forever, which is a special sharing in the priesthood of Christ and which gives the priest special supernatural powers.

“You art a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.” (Psalm 109:4)

LAS ÓRDENES SAGRADAS

El Santo Orden es el sacramento por el cual los obispos, sacerdotes y otros ministros [diáconos] de la Iglesia son ordenados y reciben el poder y la gracia para realizar sus deberes sagrados.

Que un hombre puede recibir dignamente los sagrados mandatos es necesario:

1. que estar en estado de gracia y ser de excelente carácter;
2. que tiene la edad y el aprendizaje prescritos;
3. que tiene la intención de dedicar su vida al ministerio sagrado;
4. que sea llamado a las órdenes sagradas por su obispo.

“Velad por vosotros mismos y por todo el rebaño del cual el Espíritu Santo os ha nombrado Superintendentes, en los cuales tendéis la iglesia de Dios que él adquirió con su propia sangre.” (Hechos 20:28)

Una vocación al sacerdocio significa un llamado de Dios para servir a Su Iglesia. Esa invitación de Dios para recibir las Ordenes es dada por el superior eclesiástico propio de un hombre que, después de un período suficiente de preparación y de prueba, da señales de que ha sido llamado por Dios al sacerdocio.

Los efectos de la ordenación para el sacerdocio son: primero, un aumento de la gracia santificante; segundo, la gracia sacramental, a través de la cual el sacerdote tiene la ayuda constante de Dios en su sagrado ministerio; tercero, un carácter duradero para siempre, que es una participación especial en el sacerdocio de Cristo y que da al sacerdote poderes sobrenaturales especiales.

“Tú eres sacerdote para siempre según el orden de Melquisedec.” (Salmo 109: 4)

Gospel Today

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 10:26-33

God created everything on earth, and He knows us right down to the hair on our heads. He wants us to listen to the word of Jesus, and believe. Whoever accepts Jesus on earth, will be accepted by His Father in heaven. The works of the Apostles continues.

SUMMER IS HERE!

Look around at God's world. What is your favorite summer activity?

Draw a picture of you and Jesus together. What are you doing?

Eating ice cream? Skating in the park?

Swimming at the lake, beach or pool?

Is your hair pulled up, or under a hat?

Don't forget to put sunscreen on!

SWEET as HONEY

Matthew 10:30

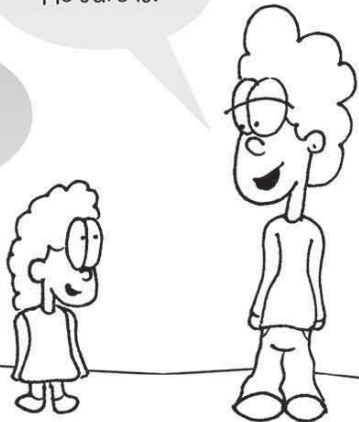

Even the hairs of your head are counted.

J.D., God is smart!

Yes Honey, He sure is.

I mean really, really, really smart!

I Can't even count how many hairs are in one curl, and He can count my whole head!
