TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

In this particularly poetic passage, Jeremiah complains that while teaching the Lord's word, he is subjected to insults and derision. He determines to remain silent, but he cannot because the desire to speak the Lord's name is "like a fire burning in my heart."

Second Reading: Romans 12:1-2

Paul tells the Christians to make sacrifices to avoid the trappings of the times, and to do God's will.

Gospel: Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus tries to make his disciples realize that by following him, they will endure suffering, degradation, and death. He tells them that they must deny themselves and take up the cross in order to be his disciples.

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William Reilly

"I urge you brothers and sisters... Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good, pleasing and perfect... Then Jesus said to his disciples 'Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.'"

One of the most difficult tasks for our parents is to bring the saving message of Jesus to their children. In an age when values, customs and traditions are challenged, what is important for families and parents is often rejected or even scorned. St. Paul's message certainly does not conform to this attitude. We are asked to be renewed and seek – 1. what is good, not just what I want to satisfy myself, 2. what is pleasing to God and to others, and 3. what is perfect, as we try to follow the way of the Lord.

The challenge never ends, but requires us to change and look for ways the gospel values become part of our daily living. Perhaps the secret for all of us is to find ourselves, praying, reflecting and asking what is the will of God for me, for us, in our particular circumstance. Unfortunately, we often forget to ask His help and go it alone. Yes, we deny self when we say 'yes' to the Lord, we embrace whatever comes our way, and determine once again to follow Him more closely.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera Lectura: Jeremías 20:7-9

En este pasaje particularmente poético, Jeremías se queja de que al enseñar las palabras de Dios, es sometido a insultos y burla. Está determinado a mantenerse en silencio, pero no puede ya que su deseo de hablar el nombre del Señor "se convierte en un fuego que me devora."

Segunda Lectura: Romanos 12:1-2

Pablo le dice a los cristianos que hagan sacrificios para evitar tentaciones, y también les dice que hagan lo que Dios desea.

Evangelio: San Mateo 16:21-27

Jesús trata de que sus discípulos se den cuenta de que al seguirlo, ellos soportarán el sufrimiento, degradación y muerte. Les dice que ellos deben negarse a sí mismos y llevar la cruz para ser sus discípulos.

SU PALABRA HOY

por el Rev. William Reilly

"Hermanos, yo los exhorto... No tomen como modelo a este mundo. Al contrario, transfórmense interiormente renovando su mentalidad, a fin de que puedan discernir cuál es la voluntad de Dios: lo que es bueno, lo que le agrada, lo perfecto... Entonces Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: 'El que quiera venir detrás de mí, que renuncie a sí mismo, que cargue con su cruz y me siga.'"

Una de las tareas más difíciles para nuestros padres es llevar el mensaje Salvador de Jesús a sus hijos. En una época en donde los valores, costumbres y tradiciones son desafiadas, lo que es importante para las familias y padres es a menudo rechazado y aún despreciado. En su mensaje, San Pablo ciertamente no se ajusta a esta actitud. Se nos pide que nos renovemos y busquemos, primero, lo que es bueno, no sólo lo que me satisface; segundo, lo que complace a Dios y a otros, y tercero, lo que es perfecto, y así intentemos seguir el camino del Señor.

El reto nunca termina, sino que requiere que cambiemos y busquemos las formas en que los valores del evangelio se conviertan en parte de nuestro diario vivir. Quizá el secreto para todos nosotros sea el encontrarnos a nosotros mismos, orar, reflexionar y preguntar cuál es la voluntad de Dios para mí, para nosotros, en nuestra circunstancia particular. Desafortunadamente, a menudo olvidamos pedir Su ayuda y caminamos solos. Si, renunciamos a nosotros mismos cuando le decimos 'sí' al Señor, cuando aceptamos lo que nos venga y escogemos nuevamente a seguirlo más de cerca.

PRAY FOR THE INFIRMED / OREMOS POR LOS ENFERMOS

O God, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

“[On what young husbands should say to their wives:] I have taken you in my arms, and I love you, and I prefer you to my life itself. For the present life is nothing, and my most ardent dream is to spend it with you in such a way that we may be assured of not being separated in the life reserved for us... I place your love above all things, and nothing would be more bitter or painful to me than to be of a different mind than you.”
